Foreword

Nothing but pleasant memories can bring back the wonderful years which profoundly linger in our hearts. We, in a reluctant way, hang our heads realizing our hour of departure is drawing near. Some of the memories of sorrow and happiness that our school has brought will remain with us the rest of our lives.

In our efforts to preserve the moments we treasure, we present THE TIGER for 1962. We the seniors of 1961-62 hope you find our book as interesting as we have tried to make it.

Superintendent's Message

Congratulations and best wishes to each member of the Jordan Sellars High School Class of 1962.

We salute also the parents and teachers of the members of this class. It is our sincere hope that each graduate will continue his education so that he may become a worthy and capable member of our adult society.

Our present world needs and demands men and women of courage, character, and leadership . . . Let your life so shine that you may be a blessing to all mankind.

L. E. SPIKES, Superintendent
Burlington City Schools

Assistant Superintendent's Message

Congratulations to each member of the staff of "The Tiger" for your work on the 1962 edition.

As you seniors complete your high school work and move forward, let me wish for you every success and the fulfillment of your dreams.

The world will not always be hospitable, but live upright lives and work hard and you will find your rightful places in our society.

Your parents and teachers have played a most important role in your school careers. They have worked hard and made many sacrifices for each member of the class of 1962.

May you look to God for guidance in all that you undertake.

HARVEY R. NEWLIN, Assistant Superintendent
Burlington City Schools

The Principal Speaks

Amid the great pageantry and ceremony we usually find attached to graduation, room is still left for me to extend felicitations and best wishes to the class of 1962. As you leave the sacred walls of this institution and join hands with the large number of our illustrious alumni, you have my sincere wish and hope that each of you will at all times strive to uphold high standards.

I further wish for each of you a life full of possibilities and abundant with success, dedicated to the service of all human kind. Your devotions to J.S.S.H. will be shown by continuing your training so as to better prepare yourself for a life of noble living and greater service to all humanity.
